TO THE EMPLOYER

Council Tax legislation makes provision for certain categories of people to be discounted for purposes of the tax. A claim has been received for such a discount from the person named above on the grounds that he or she is an apprentice. To allow me to consider this claim, can you please confirm that in the case of the applicant, the prescribed conditions as listed below are being met:

- a) They are employed for the purpose of learning a trade, business, profession, office, employment or vocation.
- b) They are for that purpose undertaking a programme of training leading to a qualification accredited by the National Council for Vocational Qualifications or the Scottish Vocational Educational Council; and
- c) They are employed at a salary or in receipt of an allowance or both, which are, in total –
 - i) substantially less than the salary he or she would be likely to receive if he or she had achieved the qualification in question; and
 - ii) no more than £195.00 gross per week.

Please Note - Both criteria in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) must be met.
