We recognise that not everyone who wants to participate can attend.

There is an unstaffed childrens' play area & library available for you to use. Please feel free to organise with other parents to use this facility so that you can view the parts of the Forum that interest you most.

Latecomers are welcome. We understand that you may not be able to commute in time to arrive for 7pm. If you are only free after this time please feel free to attend when you can.

If you have a question you would like to have asked, but are unable to attend please email
