

Request 9892 – Policy on Councillors using external email addresses

Can you please provide details of any policy that exists in relation to Councillors of the District Council using third party email accounts to conduct council business.

Response

Councillors are advised to use their councillor e-mails for Council business during their induction, but the Council does not have a specific policy that covers this.